Unveiling Brussels' Cultural Tapestry - A Recap of Our 4-Day LTТА Journey

Greetings from the Codes of Cultural Heritage project team! We're thrilled to share the highlights of our recent 4-day Learning Teaching Training Activity (LTТА) in Brussels, Belgium. The past few days have been a whirlwind of enriching experiences, educational insights, and cultural exploration.

Day 1: Inspiring Teacher Presentations and International Student Showcases:

Our LTТА began at École fondamentale de l'Héliport with warm welcomes, inspiring teacher presentations, and showcases by international students in partner languages. The day was filled with exploration of classes and savoring Brussels' finest chocolate, setting a delightful tone for the educational journey.

Day 2: Cultural Immersion and Museum Exploration:

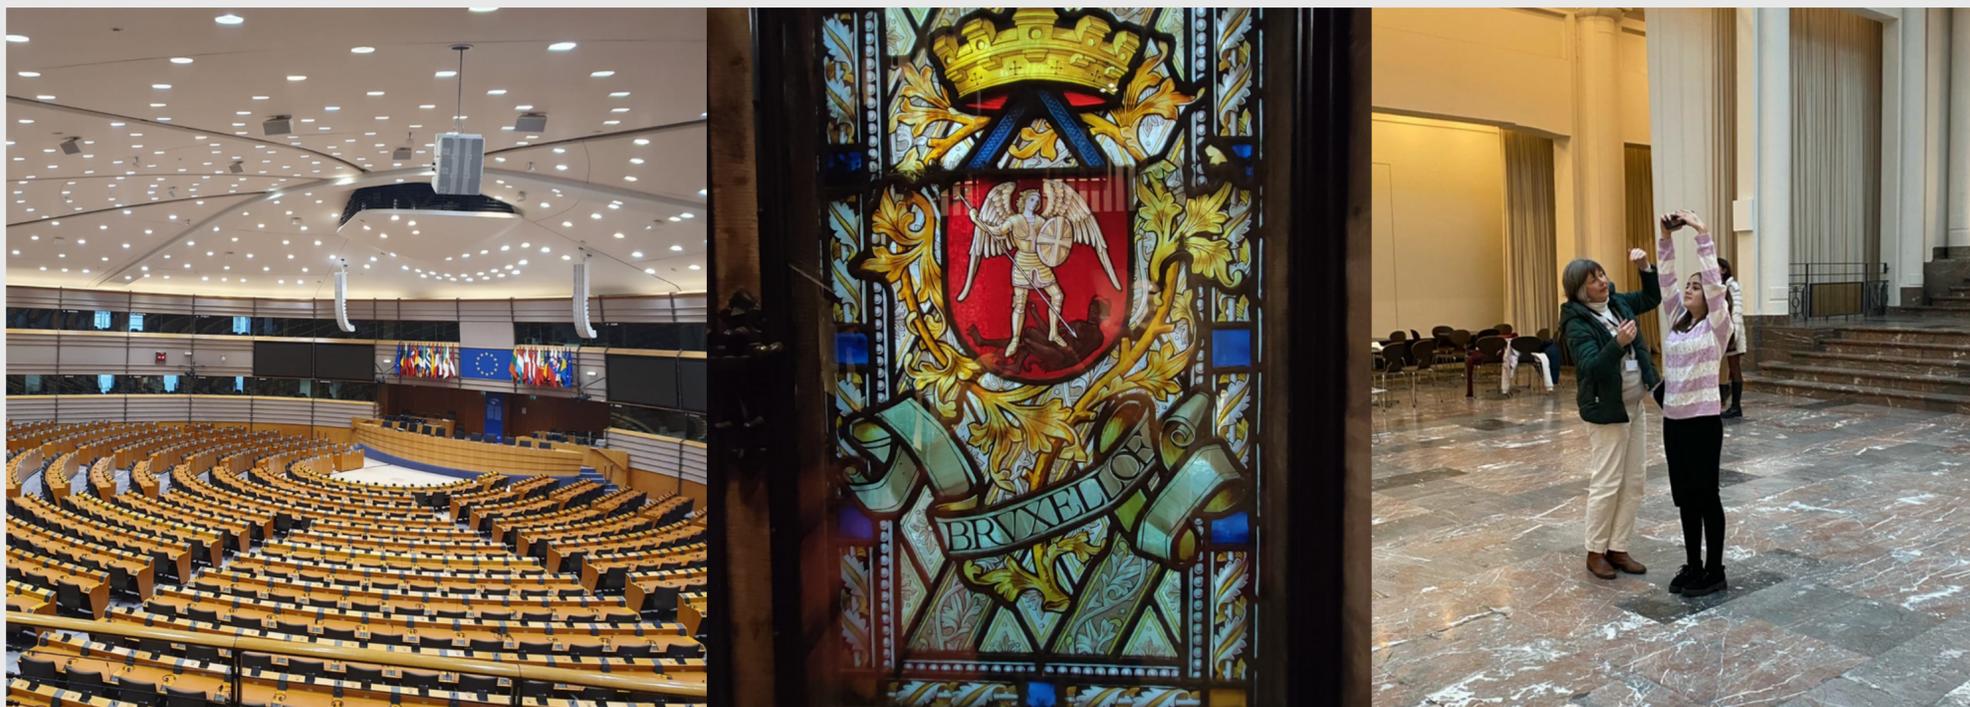

Our second day in Brussels was dedicated to deep cultural immersion. We were trained at Cempa, explored the Musée de la Maison du Musée in the morning and engaged with the captivating La garde-robe de Manneken-Pis in the afternoon, unfolding the richness of Brussels' heritage.

Day 3: Museum Workshop Activities and Leisurely Stroll:

The third day brought us to Musée « Maison Horta » for museum workshop activities, followed by a leisurely stroll through Noël du Sablon. Activities at Palais Bozar, centered around "The Horta's grammar," added depth to our cultural experiences.

Day 4: Evaluation, Certification, and Future Plans:

The final day of our LTTA was dedicated to project evaluation, certification ceremonies, and meetings to prepare for the next tasks and mobilities. As we bid farewell to Brussels, we reflect on the knowledge gained and the connections made during this incredible journey.

Next Steps and Future Plans:

Stay tuned for updates on the upcoming phases of the Codes of Cultural Heritage project. We are energized and dedicated as we prepare for the next tasks and mobilities.

Closing Thoughts:

Our time in Brussels has been an unforgettable blend of learning, cultural immersion, and collaboration. Thank you for your continued support, and we can't wait to share more updates with you soon.

Best Regards,
CCH PROJECT TEAM
